LITTLE BIT
...on most anything

The News-Sentinel is late this week — on purpose.

Press time was delayed so that results of the school tax override election could be included. They can be found elsewhere on the front page.

The News-Sentinel sports a new nameplate this week. For a long time we have been less than happy with the old English style of typeface. So we have switched to a modern type called Univers. Your comments, pro or con, will be appreciated.

This is a great photograph John Perkins made last week. We print it for that fact, pancake suspended, hoping our readers will forgive us for being conned by the politicians again.

It never fails. Every election year, the candidates start coming out of the walls whenever some civic group holds some kind of function not even remotely connected with running the city.

These fancy flapjackers are Councilman Steve Ross, left, who is running for mayor, and Councilman Emil Schmidt, who is running to stay that way. Apologies to Fr. William Licht, vicar of St. Matthias' Episcopal Church, who isn't running for anything, or wasn't, at least, at Sentinel press time.

By the way, the unrelated event was a get-acquainted pancake supper put on by the members of the St. Matthias' congregation. It was a success despite the politicians.

Anyway, please know that in the coming weeks our politicos are going to find the damnedest reasons to sneak their mugs in front of Perkins' lenses. We hope their 'enlightened image' don't fog too much film.

GI Coffee House To Appeal

The owners of the servicemen's coffee house and bookstore at the bus station on Del Monte plan to appeal a planning commission denial of their request for a use permit.

Steve Slatkow, Legal Aid attorney representing Bruce Newburger of Carmel Services, Inc., said Monday the group planned to file the appeal with the city clerk by the 7-day limit Wednesday.

The planning commission denied a permit for the bookstore in addition to the already permitted use for the restaurant.

Slatkow said his clients were being denied their constitutional rights, and indicated he would take the matter to court if the city council refuses to overturn the planners' decision.

The council is scheduled for its regular meeting Thursday at 8 p.m. in city hall.

Voters Trounce $1 School Tax

School district voters said 'No' resoundingly Tuesday to a $1 tax override.

The vote was nearly 2-1 against the measure , as only one of 14 polling precincts — King Junior High in Seaside — favored the tax, and that by only nine votes.

Of 7,265 votes cast, 4,531 opposed the override while 2,709 favored it. (See chart.)

In a statement, Monterey Peninsula Unified School District Board President Gervaise Davis criticized "false information injected at the last minute" in the campaign.

He referred mainly to a group headed by George (Bud) Zimmerman that labeled the 'real issue' in the election as cross-busing students for a better ethnic balance. It was denied by school officials.

Davis also said one board member — unnamed in Davis's statement, but clearly George Gividen — "injected confusion into the effort."

Gividen earlier supported the override in a trustee vote, but then began speaking out against the fixed amount of $1 for an indefinite period. He said the special citizens committee studying the schools' finances estimated less than 40 cents would be needed next year. (By the fifth year, the committee predicted the district would need more than $1.70, and overall an average of nearly $1, hence the reason for the override amount.)

Davis said Tuesday night any decision on a future election would depend on action of the entire board. However, he had said last week that he believed the district probably would be forced to come back for another vote if this one failed, but specified no time.

Seaside supported the measure to a greater degree than Monterey or Marina, but by only a slim margin. In Seaside 39.5 per cent of the voters supported the voerride, while 39.1 did in Marina and 35.7 in Monterey.

Heaviest opposition came in the Bayview precinct in New Monterey where 70.6 per cent opposed the tax and only 28.9 per cent favored it.

The 7,265 votes cast represented a 40.9 per cent turnout of the 17,740 voters registered in the district.

(The override was sought for an indefinite period. Last week the News-Sentinel had incorrectly reported there was a five-year time limit on its duration.)

THE CHAMP

BILLIE HEITMAN is eight years old and barely stands taller than his 'sting-ray-type' bike, but he rides it like the champ he is.

Billie beat out 75 other boys — ranging up to five years older — for the trophy naming him the Outstanding Cyclist of the year Saturday at the first annual Seaside Bike Rodeo. The event, sponsored by the Seaside Police and Fre Departments and the Boys' Club, drew a crowd of more than 200.

Billie is a second grader at Ord Terrace School and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Heitman. He's ridden a bike for three years.

Second place went to Richard Augustine, 13, a seventh grader at Fremont Junior High; and third was captured by Anthony Wilkerson, 9, a fourth grader at Highland School. Twenty other prizes were awarded, donated by Seaside merchants.

Coordinator for the event was Officer Jim Barnes of the Seaside Police Department. Judges were David Jewel, Monterey policeman; Councilman Bud Houser; Pauline McDaniels, school counselor; M. H. Tolliver of Marina; and Ed Smith, owner of House of Wheels, which donated several bicycles for the event.

HADDAD TO SEEK A SECOND TERM

Mayor Lou Haddad, waiting until just two days before the filing deadline, announced his intention Tuesday to seek re-election in the April 14 city elections.

The mayor's move was a reversal of his decision in February of 1969 when he told Chamber of Commerce in a state of the city speech that he would not run again. But Tuesday's announcement was not unexpect4d by his supporters or opponents.

Haddad will be seeking his second term as mayor. In 1966, his second attempt for the mayor's job, he won by 154 votes over Jerry McGrath, 1,333 to 1,179. Haddad was serving on the council then, having won a seat in 1964. In 1962 he was beaten in his first try at elective office in the mayoralty against Andy Anderson.

The mayor headed his list of reasons for running with an attack at Friday's order by the Water Quality Control Board that virtually bans new construction activity in the Seaside Sanitation District, which also includes Del Rey Oaks and Sand City.

Citing Monterey, Pebble Beach and Moss Landing as worse polluters of Monterey Bay than Seaside, the may said he considered the board's action against Seaside unfair when these other cities were exempted. Fort Ord, Carmel and Pacific Grove were also pordered to stop building until they stopped polluting the bay.

Haddad noted that the most recent samplings of the area around the Seaside outfall and Sand City beach showed only two instances when bacteria counts exceeded the acceptable limits. He said the district, through more and heavier chlorination and a new process to make solid waste settle faster, would meet the state standards very soon.

The sanitation district was scheduled to meet Wednesday morning and Haddad said action that might affect the construction ban might be taken. He said the district would go to court on the matter.

Haddad also said the Seaside district was now opposed to joining in a regional plan because of added cost. Consulting Egnineer John Jenks reported in a study for the district that the immediate cost of joining a regional system would be some $3,335,000 compared with $975,000 if the district on its own upgraded its sewer plant for secondary treatment.

Haddad said if federal funds were available, the sanitation district would need a tax rate of $.78 per $100 of assessed valuation if local improvements were made, compared with $.95 for the regional plant. The $.78 would be an increase of $.38 over the current rate of $.41 and would require a bond issue. The $.38 would add about $19 to the annual property tax bill of the owner of a $20,000 home. The regional plan would tack another $10 per year on top of that $19.

In the news conference called to announce his candidacy, Haddad said there were two other reasons for his running:

"1. I have taken on a personal project, an 'Equal Employment Opportunities' program, which I intend to pursue, in or out of office. However, I believe that I will be more successful in this endeavor if I continue as mayor.

"2. I have been constantly reminded by many correspondences that the pgograms this administration initiated have not been completed, and some of them hardly off the drawing boards.

"Personally I am disappointed with the present rate of progress, however since money dictates rate of progress, we expect the Gateway and Laguna Grande projects to lessen the burden on the property tax and

10 MAY RUN FOR COUNCIL

Seaside voters may have to choose from among at least 10 candidates for two city council seats in April's city elections.

By late Tuesday, with the filing deadline at noon on Thursday, four city council candidates had filed their nominating papers, another four had taken out papers and two more said they would before the deadline.

Meanwhile the race for mayor could have four candidates, but by Tuesday, only three were committed.

The council race will be led by two incumbents — Emil Schmidt and Bud Houser. Two apparent challengers will be seasoned campaigners — Pearl Carey, twice the third-place finisher for council, and Jerry McGrath, former school trustee and unsuccessful mayoral and supervisorial candidate.

Others in the race include Henry Burney, Ed Battle, Pete Cruz, David Mitchell and Dick Joyce. The 10th candidate could be Guillermo Bautista, who ran fifth in a six-candidate race in 1968.

Bautista said Monday he hadn't decided whether to run, but did indicate that there would be a member of the Filipino-American community in the race, if he decided against making the race.

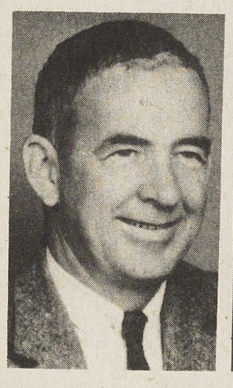

By city hall closing Tuesday, only Burney, Schmidt, Battle and Cruz had returned their nominating papers.

In the mayor's race, incumbent Lou Haddad, Councilman Steve Ross and Richard Hamilton were the candidates as of Tuesday.

Incommunicado was Councilman Oliver Murray, who had said he would make an announcement about the race last Thursday. He could not be reached Monday or Tuesday.

Threatening to make the race was political veteran Pat Patterson, who said he would not file if Murray decided to run for mayor. Patterson was undecided Tuesday, he said.

Most candidates are ignoring the new state law requiring disclosure of single financial interests in excess of $10,000. A bill before the legislature extends the deadline to April 6 for candidates. Seaside has joined Carmel and other California cities in a state supreme court suit to fight the law. Current officeholders must file their disclosure statements by April 14.

McGrath

Mrs. Carey

Mitchell

Joyce

Pearl Carey

Pearl Carey will be betting on the 'third-time's-a-charm' adage when she enters the race for city council this week.

Mrs. Carey said she would take out nominating papers Wednesday.

Mrs. Carey ran third in both the last two city council elections. In 1968 she was beaten by 110 votes by Oliver Murray. Those two and frontrunner Steve Ross all campaigned on an anti-establishment platform.

In 1966 Mrs. Carey lost out by only 92 votes; Bud Houser led the ticket with 1,400 and Emil Schmidt had 1,052. Both are in this year's race.

Mrs. Carey now holds down three jobs — an employment community adviser for the state Department of Human Resources Development (formerly Employment), owner and operator of a child care center and a full-time student in her last semester at Monterey Peninsula College.

Mrs. Carey and her husband, Ralph, a retired U.S. Army master sergeant, have lived in Seaside for 17 years. Their home is at 1231 Olympia.

Dick Joyce

Dick Joyce, former longtime member of the Seaside Redevelopment Agency, took out papers Tuesday.

A Seaside resident for 18 years, Joyce is currently community development specialist for the Anti-Poverty Service Center, and is a former businessman.

At 45, he will be making his first entry into elective politics, although he is a veteran of political warring as a 10-year member of the UR agency. In a feud with Mayor Lou Haddad, Joyce was not re-appointed Joyce is also a professional musician, a bass player, and played in the first Monterey Jazz Festival.

Joyce and his wife, Beatrice, have nine children, and live at 1205 Luzern.

He studied at the University of Nebraska, Tuskeegee Institute and Monterey Peninsula College.

Jerry McGrath

Jerry McGrath is back in politics. He took out papers Tuesday for a seat on the city council.

McGrath, a retired army major who now teaches eighth grade at San Carlos Catholic School in Monterey, is a veteran of political wars in Seaside and the area.

He was elected twice as a trustee of the Monterey Unified School District before unification, resigning to complete his degree degree from the University of Omaha and did graduate work at Cal State - Hayward.

McGrath first sought the area seat on the county board of supervisors in 1964. He was defeated a second time in 1968, that time by Loren Smith.

McGrath ran second to Mayor Lou Haddad when he won the mayorality in 1966. Haddad 1,333 votes to McGrath's 1,179.

McGrath, 49, and his wife, Helen, and four children live at 19555 Lincoln.

David Mitchell

David L. Mitchell, a 27-year-old construction foreman and carpenter, made his entry into Seaside politics this week.

He took nominating papers for a seat on the city council.

Mitchell, who lives at 1081 Mescal, said he

MEN IN SERVICE

PCF James C. Stevenson Jr., son of M/Sgt. James C. Stevenson Sr.,1759 St. Helena St., has been assigned to the CoA, 12th Air Cav., 1st Cav. Div. Airmobille, at Phuoc Vinh, Vietnam, as a tank crewman. A 1968 graduate of Seaside High School, Stevenson entered the Army in April of last year. He completed basic training at Ft. Lewis, Wash. and took advanced training at Ft. Monmouth N.J. and Ft. Knox, Ky. prior to being assigned to Vietnam.

His father, a 20-year veteran who is schedulted to retire in November, is presently the acting Sergeant Major and Managing Editor of the Army Home Town News Center in Kansas City, Mo. Upon his retirement, the family will return to their home here on the Monterey Peninsula.

An outstanding act of heroism resulted in the award of the Soldier's Medal Jan. 8 near Tay Ninh, Vietnam, to Army SFC David L. Pressley, whose wife Geneva lives in Seaside.

He received the medal for voluntarily risking his life to save others. The medal is the nation's highest award for heroism in a non-combat situation.

The sergeant, a ness steward with the 2nd Battalion, 34th Armor of the 25th Infantry Division, also holds four awards of the Bronze Star Medal, two awards of the Army Commendation Medal, and the Air Medal.

Army S/Sgt. Roy M. Stennis, whose wife Ursula lives in Seaside re-enlisted in the Regular Army for six years in Vietnam Jan. 4/

Navy Fireman Appren. Ronald D. Vierra Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald D. Vierra Sr. of 2070 Yosemite St., and husband of the former Miss Stephanie Wilson of Seaside, completed a three - week goodwill mission aboard the salvage shipp USS Grasp in the Marshall Islands.

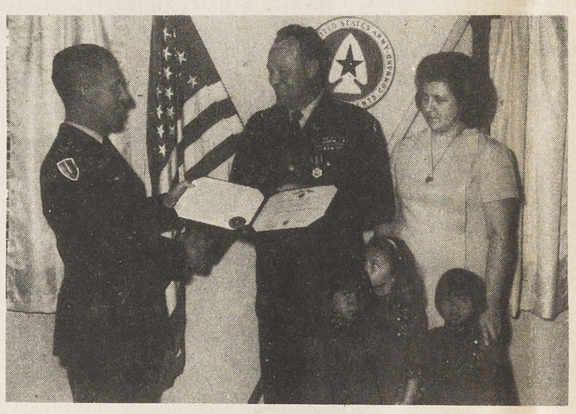

Barbara A. Gregory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Gregory, 1820 Luxton St., was among the five persons from the Seaside area enlisting for service with the Army during January, according to Jose Garcia, Army Recruitor.

Also enlisted are Chong M. Dean, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Dean, 1379 Judson St., Reginald R. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams, 1676 Highland, James Malone Jr., 1478 Yosemite St. and August 1 Beasley, 138 Corregidor Rd., Ft. Ord.

RETIREMENT

MRS. HAZEL FOSTER of Seaside accepts a letter of appreciation for 28 years of federal service from Rear Adm. Robert W. McNitt, Sup. of the Naval Postgraduate School. She retired Jan. 30 after 15 years as a legal secretary at the school. Mrs. Foster began her federal career with the Department of Agriculture in 1941, and later worker at Ft. George Wright, Geiger Field and Baxter General Hospital in Washington. She started working for the Navy in 1947, when she joined the Naval Supply Depot at Spokane, Wash. In January 1948, she transferred to Ft. Ord. During her career, Mrs. Foster was honored with several letters of commendation and four outstanding performance ratings. Her retirement plans include extensive traveling.

Errors Cause Delay

Early Federal income tax returns indicate that many taxpayers are making errors in claiming adjustments to their income which may delay their refunds, the Internal Revenue Service said today.

To avoid errors in claiming adjustments, the IRS suggested that taxpayers read the ininsturctions carefully and make sure they have attached the proper supporting documents.

NPGS Accredited

Full academic accreditation for the Naval Postgraduate School has been renewed for another five-year term through June 1975. The renewal was approved by the Accrediting Commission for Senior Colleges and Universities of the Western Association of Schools and Colleges. The commission is the official accrediting body for colleges and universities in Calif.

Your Social Security

By Raymond MacDonald

Q. My wife had a very severe stroke a couple of months ago and was hospitalized for about three weeks. After that, she spent 15 days recuperating in the hospital's extended care facility. Medicare paid all by $44 of the hospital bill, the entire cost of the extended care, and most of her doctor's charges; however, she was left with a severe speeck impairment. Can my wife receive speech therapy at home through the home health visits under Medicare?

A. Yes, but in order for any Medicare beneficiary to be eligible to receive covered home health services, her doctor must certify that she is confined to the home and cannot go elsewhere for the treatment.

Q. What do home health benefits after hospitalization cover?

A. Home health benefits after hospitalization cover part-time nursing care; physical, occupational or speech therapy; medical social services; part-time services of home health aides, use of medical applicances, and medical supplies, except drugs.

Q. I am 16 years old and starting my first job. It is only part-time work after school. Do I have to get a Social Security number?

A. Yes. Your employer is required to report your wages for Social Security purposes. You must have a Social Security number and show it to him so that you get credit for your earnings.

Census Takers Needed

Howard Weile, district manager of the 1970 census of population and housing which starts April 1, has issued an appeal to residents of the area to apply for jobs as census takers.

Applicants must be 18 years old or over and citizens of the United States. They will be required to pass a selection test demonstrating their ability to understand printed instructions and do simple arithmetic. Many will need a car in their work, and if so, mileage will b paid.

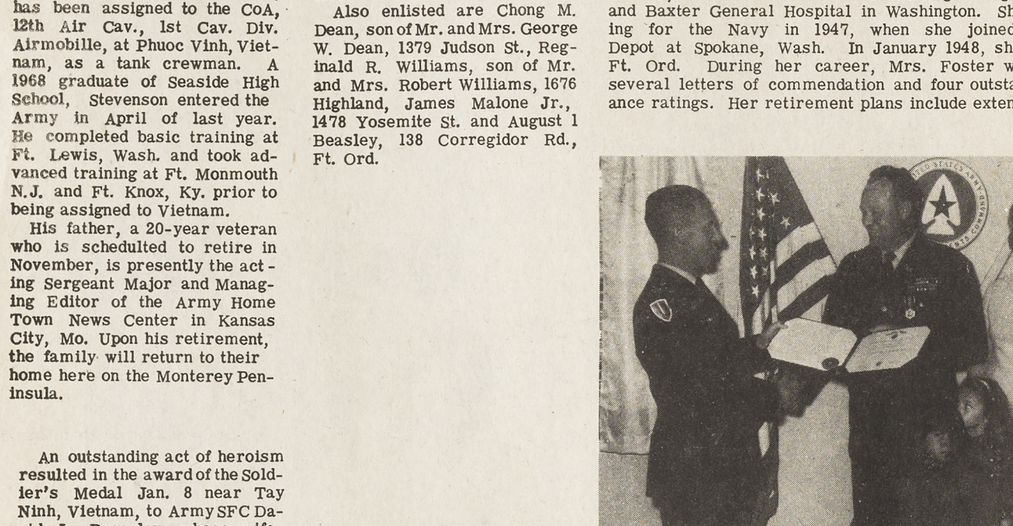

Census takers will be paid on a piece rate basis designed to average $2.00 per hour, although hourly earnings will vary depending on the diligence of individuals, according to the District Manager who pointed out that some will earn well above average, while others who work less effectively will earn less. Weekly earnings for a full 40-hour week might range from $60 to more than $100, he said. The average assignment for a census taker will last from three to five weeks beginning March 30.

The Census Bureau is an equal opportunity employer.

Candidates for jobs as census takers may write, phone or inquire in person: District Office, Bureau of the Census, 9 W. Gabilan St., Salinas , Cal. 93901. Phone 758-4681.

Black Program

Africa In The Classroom, one of a series of programs which places a spotlight on black history and black culture in white America, will be held in Santa Crua on April 3 and 4, under the sponsorship of University of California Extension, Santa Crus. It will feature Beryle Banfield, Curriculum Coordinator for the Elementary Schools in New York City, presently on leave of absence while serving as Director of the Center for Urban Education in New York.

SUPER STATION

THE CORNER of Fremont and Broadway will get a facelifting this year when the Standard Oil Co. builds a superstation, a rendering of which is shown here. The new $120,000 station will be expanded to cover the black bounded by Fremont, Broadway, Santa Barbara and Olympia. A use permit for the station was granted at last week's planning commission meeting. John Perkins Photo.

'Finest Hours' Film

"The Finest Hours," a documentary film encompassing the late Sir Winston Churchill's entire career, will be shown at Monterey Peninsula College Friday, Feb. 20, at 8 and 9:45 p.m. in the MPC music hall.

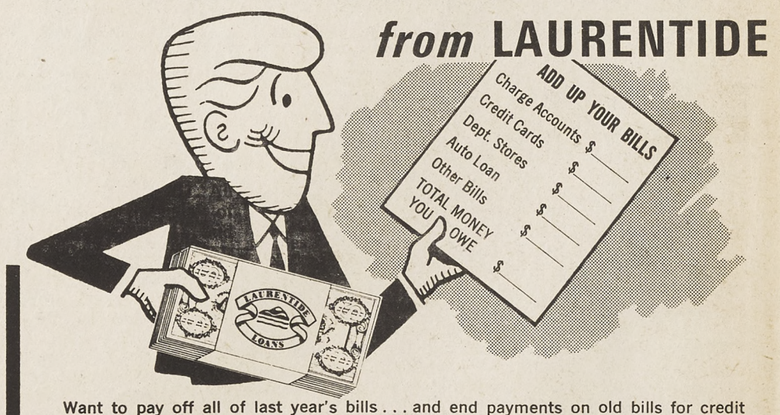

The film is the first in the college's spring series of "Window on the World" documentaries. Since series tickets for 8 p.m. screenings were completely sold out last fall, only tickets to the 9:45 performance are available. These, priced at $1, will be sold at the door.

"The Finest Hours" is a study of personality and action: it reveals the character of Churchill, and of the nation he inspired, examining the events which shaped history and his career. Politician, military strategist, author and artist - Churchill emerges from the challenges of his tme a true "Renaissance man."

Budget Supper

You can be good to the family budget and to hearty appetites, when you serve LITTLE FRIERS 'N APPLE KRAUT. If you buy food in season, you'll receive the highest quality for the lowest price. This autumn casserole features three fall favorites: pork sausage links, sauerkraut and apples.

Cook the fresh pork sausage links first and save the drippings for a flavorful brown sugar and vinegar sauce to pour over the layered sausage-apple-sauerkraut casserole. Complete the menu with sliced tomatoes dipped in lemon juice and seasoned with coarse-ground pepper and salted caraway rye.

Little Friers 'N Apple Kraut

1 package (1 lb.) Little Friers Pork Sausage links
3 tablespoons brown sugar
2 tablespoons vinegar
1/2 teaspoon salt
dash pepper
1 can (1 lb.) sauerkraut, drained
1 can (1 lb. 4 oz.) sliced apples
OR 2 cups fresh apple slices (about 4 apples)

Preheat oven to 350°. Cook Little Friers according to directions on the Oscar Mayer package. Remove and drain, reserving 4 tablespoons drippings in pan. Add brown sugar, vinegar, salt and pepper to drippings. Heat through. In shallow baking dish, arrange Little Friers, sauerkraut and apples in layers. Pour brown sugar-vinegar mixture over all. Bake 30 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

Deviled Ham Dip

2 cans (3 oz. each) deviled ham
3 tablespoons mayonnaise
½ teaspoon horseradish
½ teaspoon prepared mustard
1 package (3 oz.) room temperture cream cheese, cubed
12 small stuffed olives
2 hard-cooked eggs, sliced

GRATE (medium speed) first 5 ingredients 25 seconds, or until smooth. Stop motor and push ingredients into blades with rubber spatula, as necessary. Add olives. CRUMB (low speed) 5 to 6 seconds, or until olives are coarsely chopped. Add eggs. CRUMB (low speed) 5 to 6 seconds, or until eggs are coarsely chopped. Yield: About 1⅔ cups.

Two steps to successfully enhance your bustline

1. With cups down, reach into opening of supporting triangle and bring breast tissue forward (patented bra will keep this tissue in position).

2. As you straighten up, fasten cup to shoulder strap, allowing for fullness of bust to fill cup.

As you wear your FIGURETTE bra, you will see for yourself how comfortable it is.

COLLECTOR'S ITEMS

One of the most popular periods of American history for modern collectors of memorabilia is the Gay Nineties—from 1890 to 1910. One publisher discovered this when he reprinted the 1897 Sears, Roebuck catalog and it became a best seller, now in its sixth printing.

According to latest estimates, about 50 million Americans—one out of every four people—collect memorabilia of one type or another. Some of the most popular items of the Gay Nineties, like Tiffany and gas lamps and Model T's are now being amassed.

One of the newest collector's items from this era, available in limited edition, is Westclox's handcrafted recreation of their original 1910 Big Ben Alarm Clock. Faithfully reproducing every detail of the original, the Classic Big Ben provides a ringing memory of a gay, bygone era.

Do you know that one of the most prized collections of the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City is the Burdick Collection? It consists mostly of chewing gum cards, picture post cards, paper dolls and Valentines, yet to museum officials it gives more insight into American life at the time than can be gained from a dozen history books.

Tax Seminar At MPC

Planning to prepare your own income tax? Then you'll probably need some help.

That's why Monterey Peninsula College is offering, as a community service, a special income tax seminar on five Tuesday evenings - Feb. 17 and 24 and March 3, 10 and 17 - 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. in MPC's Lecture-Forum 101.

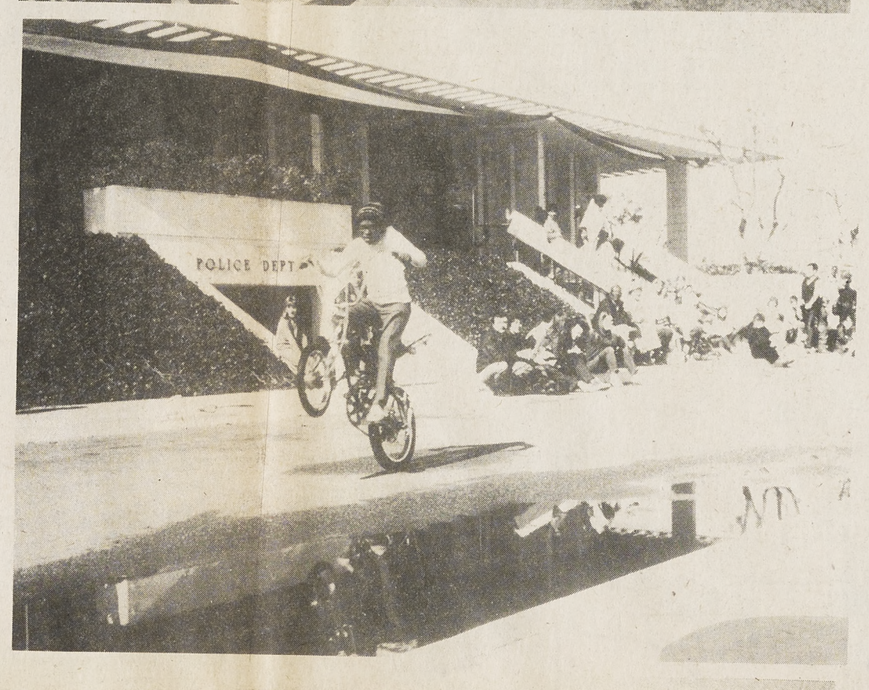

Planned primarily for individuals who will prepare their own tax returns, the seminar will also be of value to representatives of unincorporated business firms, bookkeepers and accountants, since much up-to-date tax information will be covered. Attention will also be focused on the alternatives open to a taxpayer who wants to reduce his tax liability.

Seminar leader will be Eliot Jones, CPA, a Carmel real estate broker, and tax consultant, Jones, who earned his B.A. degree in economics - accounting at Stanford University in 1936, has been associated with Price, Waterhouse & Co., San Francisco; manjger, Cypress Bowl, Monterey' president, American Recreation Centers, Inc.; and in commercial real estate sales with Coldwell, Banker & Co., Sacramento.

A registration fee of $2.50, payable at the college community services office in advance or in class at the first meeting, will be charged.

Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q) My tax forms came all right but my son's didn't even though he is now working full-time. What should he do?

A) A tax forms package is mailed each year to everyone who filed a return the previous year. If your son filed last year, he should have received one by now. If not, he can obtain 1969 tax forms and instructions at a local IRS office, post office, or bank.

Q) I'm single but I do support my niece who lives with me. Can I file as head of household?

A) If your niece qualifies as your dependent, you may be able to file as head of household. Check your 1040 instructions for details.

Q) If I seek outside help with my tax return, how should I go about it?

A) Call your local accounting, legal or tax practitioner association and ask them for the names of qualified people.

In choosing someone, here are things to look for:

1) avoid the man who "guarantees" you a refund
2) be on guard if he suggests the refund be sent to his address.

You are legally responsible for every item on the return even though someone else has helped you prepare it. So you should never sign a blank tax return or one that has been prepared in pencil.

Your advisor should sign the return, too, indicating that he helped you with it.

Be sure the return you file has the pre-addressed label on it that came with your tax form package. The top label can be lifted off the form it came on and put on another, if necessary. Double check the information on the label for accuracy. Corrections may be made on the label itself.

Q) Where should I send my tax return?

A) Send it to the IRS service center for your district. An envelope addressed to the service center was included in all tax packages. If you have misplaced yours, look in the 1040 instructions (page 1040-1) for the address to use.

Q) My son is in the Service and last week he got his W-2 forms from a former employer. Does he have to file a tax return?

A) Yes, if his income was $600 or more last year. A return also has to be filed to obtain a refund of withheld taxes even if income was less than $600. However, if he is stationed overseas, he has additional time to file his return.

Taxpayers out of the country have an automatic extension from April 15 to June 15 to file 1969 returns. If your son is in Vietnam, his return isn't due until 180 days after he leaves that area.

Q) Are medicare premiums deductible?

A) Yes, premiums for Medicare and other medical insurance are deductible if you itemize expenses on your return using Schedule A.

Don't forget that medical insurance premiums are handled differently than other medical expenses. One half of these premiums up to a maximum of $150 may be deducted without regard for the 3 percent limitation generally imposed on medical expenses. The balance is included with your other medical expenses.

Details on deducting medical insurance premiums and other medical expenses can be found on the back of Schedule A.

Q) Is interest from U.S. Savings Bonds taxable?

A) Yes, this interest income is taxable and can either be reported each year as it is earned or all at once when the bonds are redeemed or when they mature. If you elect the yearly method of reporting, you must continue with it on all future bond purchases until you obtain permission from the IRS to change the method of reporting.

The interest from the savings bonds should be added to your interest income from other sources and entered on line 13 of Form 1040. If the amount is $100 or less, only the total need be entered.

When interest income is over $100, the amounts and the source must be reported on Schedule B. This schedule should be attached to your Form 1040.

Q) A check I wrote in December to a charity was not cashed until this January. Does this mean I can't deduct it on my 1969 return?

A) You may take the deduction in the year you wrote and mailed the check.

Get rid of your hang-ups.

Get a dryer.

Wet wash is a hang-up. In more ways than one. It's no fun to pin and unpin 10,000 clothespins a year. It's no fun to tote a couple of thousand pounds of wash 40 miles to and from the clothesline. And a dryer will reduce the need for ironing. Get a dryer. PG and E to provide the funds to continue on.

"It is for these reasons I am asking the people of Seaside to retain me in office."

Haddad said that when he announced a year ago he wouldn't seek re-election, he thought most of his major programs — a recreation center and library and Laguna Granda — would be well on their way to completion by this year so he could retire. "I want to be around to at least break ground on these projects," he said.

The mayor said that if it becomes a race primarily between him and Ross, that the campaign will be waged principally on their differences of philosophy. "Ross is probably as dedicated as any member of the city council. We don't always agree but there's no doubt he's dedicated to the city." Haddad said.

entered the race because he feld a change was needed in local government and said he was not satisfied with candidates already in the race.

Mitchell is the son of Fred Mitchell, former city councilman and longtime critic of the present city administration. Young Mitchell and said his father would act as his campaign manager, but noted that the two don't always agree on issues.

Mitchell indicated that the single factor that made him decide to run was the construction freeze slapped on the city by the water quality congrol board. He said the city had had a year's warning, contending something should have been done to forestall the ban.

Mitchell is a 1960 graduate of Monterey High School. He served in the U.S. Navy for s short time and received an honorable medical discharge. He and his wife, Linda, have two sons and a daughter.

Group Tours Postal Sites

Chamber of Commerce committee surveyed five potential sites for a new Seaside Post Office last week. A recommendation was to be sent to regional postal officials. It was not disclosed.

The committee toured the following sites:

— Northwest corner of Broadway and Terrace.

— Southeast corner of Fremont and Olympia where the United California Bank was to have built its new branch. (Construction was halted on it recently when bank officials said building costs had risen too high. No future plans were announced.)

— 1171 Echo, across from Mayfair Market and next to A to Z Rental Center.

— 1177 and 1199 San Pablo, lost behind Empire Furniture on Fremont and part of the new Seaside Garden Cetner.

Members of the committee were John Pattullo, Paul Davis, John Bean, Eddie Williams, Juanita Brolliar, Jim Wester and Chamber manager Art Bayer.

James G. Schultz, regional real estate officer for the post office, said this week he would consider the recommendation of the committee along with others. He said he preferred to talk directly with land owners in discussing possible sites. Interest property owners may contact him at 631 Howard St., San Francisco, 94106, he said.

Schultz said he expected a minimum of 18 months before a new post office could be opened.

Announcement that Seaside would get a new post office came from Mayor Lou Haddad two weeks ago after he had received word of the approval from Rep. Burt Talcott.

The new facility will be leased by the post office department from a landlord successful in a bid competition after the postal officials have chosen and optioned the property, Schultz said. It will require nearly an acre, some 12,000 square feet for building and 28,000 for parking.

Anti-Poverty Tonight

Plans are being made by the Anti-Poverty Council of the Monterey Peninsula to coordinate several agencies' efforts this year in the fight to help the poor.

Groups participating will include the staff of the Monterey Peninsula Service Center, Operation Shoe Strings, Food Bank, Legal Aid, Involved Club, Pre-Teen Girls Club, Young Adults for Action, Monterey County Task Froce, and the Community School Program of the Monterey Peninsula Unified School District.

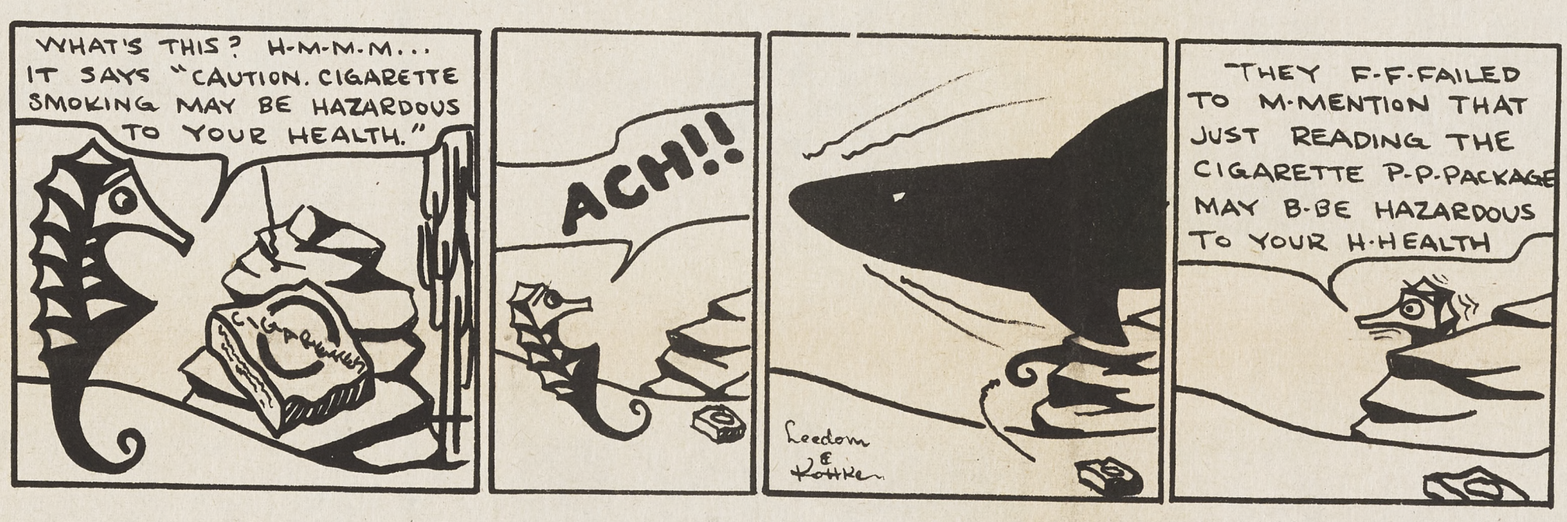

At the regular monthly meeting of the council Wednesday, Feb. 18, at 8 p.m. at the service center, the newly elected president, Ed Battle, will conduct election of members of the executive board and fill vacancies on standing committees.

Battle called for volunteers "to come and get involved in the exciting work of helping those who need our help."

NEW ELKS

CITADEL LODGE #1320, Elks, the Exalted Ruler, officers and members recently welcomed some of the new members of the order. From left are Messrs. Phillips, Williams, Ross and Polite.

Fil Americans To Install

The Fil-American Club of the Monterey Peninsula will hold its Installation Ball Saturday, Feb. 21 from 7:30 p.m. to 1 a.m. in the Pacific room of the Hotel San Carlos in Monterey.

A no-host cocktail hour at 6:30 will be followed by dining and the installation at 8:45. Installation officer will be Les Dixon, attorney for the club. Dancing will be to the music of George Miller.

Admission is $4.

Esperanto Class

Aclass in esperanto, the international language, is being offered by the Adult Education office of the Monterey Peninsula Unified School District.

Classes are held Tuesdays from 7-10 p.m. at Monterey High in room 85 under the teaching of Prof. Balcar.

Further information may be obtained at the adult education office of the schools.

Countertop Kitchen Party

Today's modern living dictates informal entertaining. What better place for a party buffet than the kitchen countertop, where such modern appliances as an electric blender are at your fingertips!

During the holiday season, the kitchen is a perfect spot to set out an array of appetizers for a trim-the-tree party or after-carolling refreshment.

The kitchen workhorse for these two party dips is a new eight-speed deluxe Sears blender with a special "Touch-n-Go" button for "instant on and off" that prevents overblending. Serve the blender-made shrimp dip with a wreath of crisp vegetables, and set out some crackers for the hearty blender ham spread.

These recipes are just two of 384 recipes designed especially for the electric blender in a new book titled "Blender Cooking."*

Shrimp And Cheese Dip

1 package (8 oz.) room temperature cream cheese, cubed
1 can (4½ oz.) deveined shrimp, drained
½-inch square lemon rind
1 cup dairy sour cream
⅓ cup chutney
½ teaspoon curry powder

CHOP (medium speed) all ingredients 15 seconds; stop motor. Push ingredients into blades. Repeat process as needed until smooth. Yield: About 2⅔ cups.

Imposters?

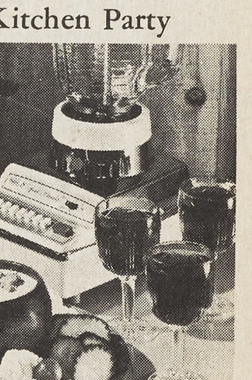

The Pacific Gas and Electric Company today warned householders not to admit strangers who claim to be PG&E employees unless they show proper identification.

The warning was issued after homeowners in several counties notified police that men posing as PG&E employees sought entrance to inspect the wiring in their homes.

Motto Contest

As a graduate school, the Naval Postgraduate School has everything but a coat-of-arms and a learned motto. The school is over 60 years old, has a 300-man faculty, 1600 students, superb facilities and now requires a suitable insignia and motto.

Two contests have been launched to correct the situation. One contest is for the insignia, first prize to receive $100, second $50; the other for the motto, to receive $25. The contest closes June 30.

REGINALD R. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams 1676 Highland St., has recently volunteered for service with the U.S. Army.

Williams chose to enlist for guaranteed training in the Aircraft Maintenance Field. He met the qualifications by passing all the necessary physical and mental tests. He is a Monterey High School graduate and was employed by the Ft. Ord Post Exchange System before enlisting.
